

News

Gregoire Cayatte appointed Chief Financial Officer of Devoteam

Sep 18, 2013

Devoteam today announced that Gregoire Cayatte has been appointed Chief Financial Officer (CFO). A 13-year veteran of Devoteam, Grégoire Cayatte (43) hitherto held the position of Director of Corporate Finance, in charge of the global strategy and development (M&A). Member of the Executive Committee, he continues to lead the corporate finance transactions and to manage the Financial Officers within the Group.

‘Combining deep financial experience with strong leadership skills, Grégoire Cayatte has the right capabilities enabling him to succeed in this new position. Being the anchor for our Group, he is an essential member to successfully lead our ongoing transformation’ said Stanislas de Bentzmann, Devoteam Chief Executive Officer.

Cayatte said, ‘I am honored to take wider responsibility within the Group. With our strong expertise around offers such as Cloud or Mobility, the Group is well positioned to continue its mission of ‘Connecting Business & Technology’ for our clients, while increasing value for our shareholders in the coming years.’

Devoteam also announced that Victor Farroco (42) has been appointed Deputy Finance Director, in charge of accounting, consolidation, cash management and tax management.

Evelyne Broisin (33) has been appointed Corporate Finance Director. She remains responsible for the venture business unit, while overseeing the Group financial communication and controlling.

CONTACT

Grégoire Cayatte

Chief Financial Officer

